CAD Technician | Monday – Friday 7:30am – 5:30pm

Kocher+Beck UK Ltd is looking for a CAD Technician in their Customer Service Representatives department, to join their successful team based in Coalville. This is a permanent position and is a great opportunity for anyone wanting to continue their career in CAD/engineering.

The role involves a varied range of tasks, such as producing technical drawings, creating bespoke sharpening files for CNC machines, and diagnosing file faults. Our systems use a unique drawing package, so full training will be provided in all areas.

The ideal candidate will have:

- Have good computer literacy.
- Have a good standard of maths (this will be tested during the interview process).
- Possess excellent attention to detail.
- Experience with graphic software is a plus.
- Be confident learning new skills and systems.
- Have a flexible attitude regarding working hours & tasks.
- Enjoy working in a small team & be willing to help others when needed.

In return we offer:

- A chance to work for a forward-thinking company that's been based in Coalville for over 25 years.
- Good starting pay with regular reviews.
- Full in-house training on products & systems.
- Company supplied workwear & free on-site parking.
- Company pension scheme.
- Additional benefits include an annual bonus scheme, health and wellbeing programme, and life insurance.

Starting Salary: This will be negotiated with the successful candidate based on experience and skill set.

Job Type: Full-time      Location: Coalville, LE67
